WHY WE DO IT • • •

From four years of sheltered school life we are about to cross the threshold of Commencement into the workshop of the World. So that we may always keep our memories and friendships of High School days clear and meaningful, we entrust their preservation to our Annual.

W E D E D I C A T E

In expression of our appreciation to our Mothers and Fathers who have made our school days possible and who have served as a constant source of inspiration for us, we, the Class of 1935, dedicate this edition of Hi-S-Potts.

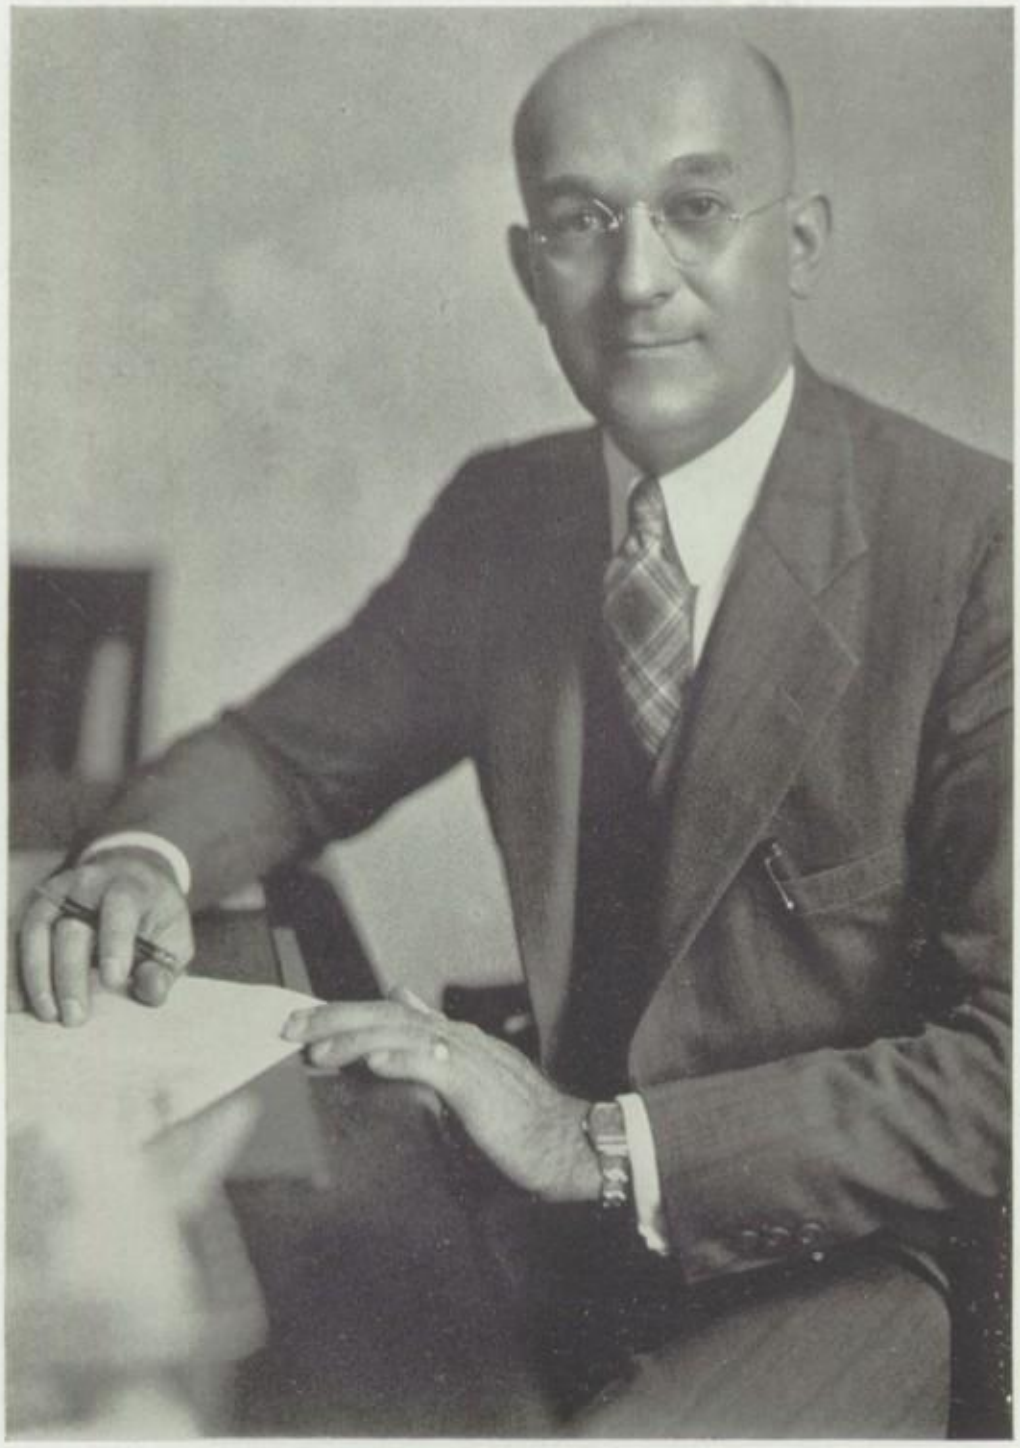
SUPERINTENDENT
L. A. BUDAHN

"O, the joys of a manly selfhood!
Personality — to be servile to none — to defer to none, not to any tyrant, known or unknown,
To walk with erect carriage, a step springy and elastic;
To look with a calm gaze, or a flashing eye;
To speak with a full voice out of a broad chest;
To confront with your personality all the other personalities of the earth."

M E N •



PRINCIPAL
D. H. H. LENGEL

"To fear no ill,
To do wrong to no man,
To prove true,
This is the golden rule of life
We have found it so with you."

DEAN OF GIRLS
DOROTHY K. CRITZ

"A GIRL'S BEST FRIEND"

"She speaks gently, 'tis a little thing,
Dropped in the heart's deep well,
The good, the joy, that it may bring
Eternity shall tell."

MILES S. KIEHNER

WARREN N. BUTLER

"BEHIND THE SENIOR FRONT"

MR. BUTLER:
"Noble deeds that are concealed are most esteemed."

MISS JOHNSON:
"They say that the best counsel is that of woman."

MR. KIEHNER:
"In all respects the best fellow in the world."

''WITHOUT THEM

"Let the soldier be abroad if he will; he can do nothing in this age. There is another personage abroad, — a person less imposing,— in the eyes of some, perhaps, insignificant. The schoolmaster is abroad; and I trust to him, armed with his primer, against the soldier in full military array."

This statement is a faint expression of the Staff's appreciation of the unselfish interest shown by Helen Reigle and Cornelia Carpenter, who have in no small degree aided in making our publication what we hope it is — a source of delight to everyone.

My second helpings at meal time. yow yelling for me to keep quiet Miss hoping the bus would stop to let me out. At the Coorg. Lib. Smithsonian. and other places. If I only had $\frac{1}{2}$ the money we saw in the Bureau of Engraving Just think in 1945 they expect to get a dollar to-gether and go down again. I wonder if we'll have the same fun we had in 3 If we all have the same type of personality, it & the we could have a much better time. Tell Ed- Au revoir Love & kisses & etc

POTTSVILLE HIGH IS HOME

(To the Tune of PLAY TO ME, GYPSY)

FIRST VERSE:

There's an old, old Promised Land
Where wisdom reigns alway,
Scholars seek to haunt her strand
And her wish obey.
Her we sought with gallant crew,
And pilots strong and true,
Now we leave them singing
'Tis our best adieu.

SECOND VERSE:

Soon we leave your corridors
And much like gypsies roam,
Though we reach far distant shores
Pottsville High is Home.
Wheresoe'er our routes may lead,
Your voice we'll quickly heed,
And through all the years to come
To you we'll speed.

CHORUS:

O dear Alma Mater,
We can't forget you
Who steered us into the port
Though wild winds blew;
Oh! Sing with us, High School,
On this day of days,
The years will not ridicule
Your lovely lays;
Outside these spacious halls
Your bright gleams flow,
But far beyond their beams
Your teachings go;
Oh! Sing with us, Schoolmates,
Let Melody roam,
Forever will Pottsville High
Be Home Sweet Home.

—MARTHA PHILIPS.

THE SENIOR PLAY

SYNOPSIS OF BIG HEARTED HERBERT

Big Hearted Herbert is a truly modern, real life story. The plot centers about Herbert Kalness, a middle-aged manufacturer, who because of his treating his children just as though they were still babies, almost breaks up his home.

Through his wife, Elizabeth, who understands him, happiness is restored to the family, and his daughter, Alice, is happily married, while his oldest son is allowed to attend college to study engineering, his life-long ambition.

It is a play full of comedy, particularly a dinner scene where Elizabeth attempts to bring Herbert to his senses by having everything just as plain as Big Hearted Herbert pretends to be.

Big Hearted Herbert realizes his selfishness and mistaken attitude toward his family, and is perfectly satisfied when Robert, his young son, voices his ambition to become a manufacturer just like his father.

SOPHOMORES

"There's a good time coming, boys;
A good time coming,
We may not live to see the day,
But earth shall glisten in the ray
Of the good time coming.
Cannon-balls may aid the truth,
But thought's a weapon stronger;
We'll win our battle by its aid,
Wait a little longer."

"I want a hero: an uncommon want,
When every year and month sends forth a new one."

"Behold, we know not anything;
I can but trust that good shall fall.
At last — far off,— at last, to all,
And every winter change to spring."

You hear that boy laughing? — you think he's all fun;
But the angels laugh, too, at the good he has done;
The children laugh loud as they troop to his call,
And the poor man that knows him laughs louder of all.

Of life's great city! On thy head
The glory of the morn is shed,

Here at the portal thou dost stand,
And with thy little hand

Into the future's undiscovered land."

"He seemed a cherub, who had lost his way

That he should be no delver in earth's clod,
Nor need to pause and cleanse his feet
To stand before his God.

Of moving gracefully or standing still,

Desirous seems to run away from the other."

HI - S - POTTS NEWSPAPER

The Hi-S-Potts Newspaper began its year of activities by distributing free papers to the student body on the first day of school. The business staff managed the sale of season tickets, having conducted a very successful campaign.

Hi-S-Potts Newspapers were sold at the Windber vs. Pottsville game. In commemoration of this occasion a six-page issue was published containing valuable data concerning both teams, with a number of pictures of both squads.

The year was one of the most successful ever experienced by the organization. Pins were purchased upon which was inscribed the new Hi-S-Potts seal. Three of the staff members journeyed to the Columbia University Scholastic Press Conference which was held in New York City on March 14-17. Another conference, held in Mahanoy City, was attended earlier in the year.

TRI-HI-Y

The Tri-Hi-Y, under the sponsorship of Miss Ruby Elwell, had a very successful and entertaining year of activity, the purpose and motto of the club having been constantly in the foreground.

Several times during the year women of Pottsville who are prominent in social work spoke to the girls.

Betty Stout and Isabel Carrol represented the Tri-Hi-Y at the Wilkes-Barre Conference in February.

An outstanding feature of this year's work was the organization of a Leadership group composed of twelve seniors who studied guidance of young people. At each meeting talks were given on various phases of Leadership by women of the community.

HI-Y

The purpose of the Boys' Hi-Y is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character.

The meetings of the club are held every Wednesday evening from 7:00 to 7:30 at the Y. M. C. A., at which meetings outside speakers have been heard.

An enjoyable party was held during the fall at the Y. M. C. A. During the year the boys entertained the girls at the Y. M. C. A. Consequently, both clubs are endeavoring to have joint meetings more frequently.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

OFFICERS

President ..... GEORGE PYLE
Vice-President ..... GRACE COOKSON
Secretary ..... SHIRLEY LEIDICH
Treasurer ..... ROBERT HORN

In the six years that the Student Council has been in existence there has been a steady growth in its usefulness. Each year has brought new accomplishments and every new group of council members has donated constructive ideas for the betterment of the school welfare.

The 1934-35 Council probably laid most emphasis upon the extension of cooperation between the Council and the student body. It is felt that a really intimate relationship has been established between the home rooms and the Council due to the fact that the representatives made a more definite aim to accomplish this objective.

Pottsville was honored this year with the meeting of the Pennsylvania State Educational Association Conference which was held in the Pottsville High School on October 19, 1934. Three hundred delegates attended. Mr. Robert C. Brothemarkle, personnel officer of the University of Pennsylvania, was the distinguished speaker for the event. The program was so arranged that the teachers had their meeting with the speakers, the pupils separated with the student leaders and chairmen. This was followed by a joint meeting of both for general discussion. The last feature was very beneficial and looked upon with favor by all. All who participated in this successful affair looked forward to the P. S. E. A. convention which will be held next year at Easton.

Concerning its relationship to other schools, the Pottsville Student Council assisted the Blythe Township school in establishing a council of its own.

P. H. S. communicated with many school representatives from the southeastern section of the state during the P. S. E. A. convention. The foundation for interesting future contacts was laid at this time.

The divers activities of the Council were a source of pleasure and pride to all this year's members, and it is hoped that this worthwhile work will be carried on in all the future years with the same commendable spirit that has marked the time to the present.

OPERETTA

A CAPPELLA CHOIR IN "H. M. S. PINAFORE"

THE MUSICAL CLUBS

The Musical Clubs of Pottsville High School, under the direction of Earl W. Haviland, have completed the busiest and most successful year since their organization in 1928.

The A Cappella Choir of 70 voices began preparation the first week of school for the combined choral concert of the Pottsville, Mahanoy Township, and Cass Township choirs, under the inspiring leadership of Dr. Hollis E. Dann, Director of Music at New York University. The concert was a feature of the Braun School Commencement, held September 30, at the Capitol Theatre and was highly successful.

The mass chorus of 220 voices repeated the program at the annual convention of the State Educational Association held at the local high school, October 19, under the direction of Mary Muldowney, Marjorie Bone, and Earl W. Haviland.

The Choral Ensemble of 34 voices, selected from the large choir, inherited the fine tradition established by the ensembles of 1933 and 1934, which won the state championship both years, at Sunbury and Johnstown. By invitation of Miss Laura Bryant, Director of Music at Ithaca, New York, and president of the Eastern Conference of Music Educators, the ensemble was guest choir at the Twenty-sixth Annual Reunion Concert at Ithaca High School. Their championship record resulted in invitations to sing at the State Educational Association Convention held in Harrisburg, December 27, and at the Eastern Conference of Music Educators held in Pittsburgh, March 12-15. The latter event was the highest honor that could have been bestowed on a school musical organization, and the beautiful and inspired singing of the choir earned enthusiastic praise from officials of the State Department of Public Instruction and the music departments of great universities such as Penn State, Columbia, New York University, and Carnegie Tech. Eleven members of the ensemble sang in the Conference Chorus of 400 voices which rehearsed four days, then broadcast over the Blue Network of the National Broadcasting Company and gave a gala concert for the conference members on the final night. The Pittsburgh trip was an inspiration to the members of the ensemble and a never-to-be-forgotten week which ended all too soon.

CHORAL ENSEMBLE

Lots of success to you when you leave P. H. S. Jane.

Remember those gym classes? Gene. P.S. Heren't we awfully sicke?

120 a lovable senior love 'Hazel'

The most ambitious project ever attempted by the Musical Clubs was the production of Gilbert and Sullivan's "H. M. S. Pinafore," February 5, 6, and 7. The entire membership of the A Cappella Choir, assisted by selected voices from the Glee and Choral Clubs, gave three triumphant performances of the famous comic opera classic.

The acting, singing, and dancing of the cast and chorus was a revelation to the splendid audiences which gave enthusiastic manifestations of their delight and approval. The opera was lavishly staged and costumed, and the hearty cooperation of faculty members, school officials, and student body made the hard work and fine talent of the cast, chorus, and orchestra doubly effective.

The cast and production staff were as follows:

Girls' Choral Club - Boys' Glee Club

The Girls' Choral Club of 120 voices has not only had a worth-while choral experience during the year, but has developed many artistic ensemble singers who will fill the vacancies in the A Cappella Choir and Ensemble, created by graduation.

The Boys' Glee Club of 50 voices contributed 20 tenors and basses to the male chorus of Pinafore and prepared several fine groups for the concert program. An especially fine spirit of good-will and appreciation marked the work of this club. Many outstanding tenors and basses will help materially in the development of next year's contest choir.

The Junior Mixed Chorus of 80 voices, composed mainly of younger students who enjoy choral singing and who are not sufficiently developed vocally for choir, choral, or glee club work, has participated in informal mass singing of unison songs and some elementary part singing. Music, especially choral singing, must be adapted to the capacity of the group to participate, appreciate, and accept the discipline inherent in choral organization.

Band - Dance Orchestra

About December 1, 1934, Mr. Leo F. Minnichbach was appointed by Superintendent L. A. Bu Dahn to direct the high school band.

This organization took part in several parades, and the first concert was given on December 20, 1934, in assembly. The stage was graced by a beautiful Christmas tree. The program consisted of a new Christmas selection and several snappy marches.

Rehearsals were continued and on January 30th another concert was rendered in assembly, consisting of an overture, serenade, and some spirited marches.

During the past few weeks numbers by Victor Herbert and Charles Roberts have been receiving much attention. A broadcast over Station WEEU, Reading, is contemplated in the near future.

Symphony Orchestra - Junior Chorus

The Symphony Orchestra of 50 players, many of them quite young and trained in the school instrumental classes, has shown a commendable spirit in absorbing the basic technic and practice of orchestral ensemble. Because of the need for mastery of fundamentals and gradual development, the music played, while of excellent musical quality, has been of intermediate grade of difficulty.

The orchestra furnished the music for the Annual Washington's Birthday Minuet and prepared concert programs for several public performances.

The climax of the year's work came in May, when the A Cappella Choir, Choral Ensemble, Glee Club, Choral Club, Band, and Orchestra combined to present the Seventh Annual Music Festival, in celebration of National Music Week. An ever higher standard of musical appreciation and performance, together with well-disciplined and coordinated mass effort, made the festival program at once an evidence of fine results accomplished and a promise of greater achievements to come.

Faculty Adviser.....T. T. ALLEN

The T. K. D. is one of the outstanding organizations in Pottsville High School. The society comprises thirteen active leading students proportioned into seven seniors, four juniors, and two sophomores. The T. K. D. was organized in 1925 and is now the oldest continued organization in the school.

A form of scholarship fund payable to a worthy student of financial difficulties is the organization's noted contribution to the school. Another outstanding activity of the society is an annual Thanksgiving Dance for students and alumni. Other social functions include several pep dances held during the football season and a dinner dance for the graduating members.

Tau Kappa Delta operates quietly but, nevertheless, efficiently and has always backed every school activity to the best of its ability.

This year's organization was very fortunate in securing Coach T. T. Allen as faculty adviser.

The current members of the society are Charles Dimmerling, George Pyle, Karl Striegel, Jack Schott, Fred Arbogast, Thomas Arbogast, James Carpenter, Dick Bennie, Ned Smyth, Jack Hood, Charles Conrad, Robert Horn, and Robert Leininger. inger.

Dr. A. P. Knight is the honorary member of the group.

PROLOGUE

In Memory's Hall on High School Heights
There's an echoing call from Arabian nights;
There's a voice in the air; and a song in the sky,
And the people loiter as they pass by
And linger and listen, and wish again
That they may be joining the last refrain.
For on High School Heights in Memory Hall,
Is ringing the thrill of a nation's call;
And never a wonder that everyone
Will whisper the name of Washington.

And presently, borne on the music's beat,
Comes stealing the top of dancing feet,
And the silent spirits of long ago
Billow and curtsey on heel and toe.
For the fairest maids when the land was young,
And the bell from Old South Church had rung,
Are peeping out from the blonde and jet,
And swinging free in the Minuet.

And the men who went from the tap of feet
To the tap of drum intense and fleet,
Are casting their rosy shadows down
And wearing patterns of old renown.

Oh, Memory's Hall ne'er seemed so dear,
For something on trembling wings is here.

—Frank W. Moser,
Late Principal of P. H. S.

Delivered by Alma Gluck.

The Senior Athletic Boosters

President.....DORIS DENNING
Vice-President.....BETTY BEHR
Secretary.....DOROTHEA HUTCHINSON
Treasurer.....CLARA HUMMEL

The Senior Athletic Booster Club is an honorary society of twenty-two members. It is composed of eleven seniors and eleven juniors. The aim of the club is to promote wholesome athletics in the high school. Seniors and juniors who have attained ten athletic points and a scholastic average of "C" are eligible to become members of the club.

This organization was first introduced into the school by the sophomore class of 1928. It became the J. A. B. in 1929 and the S. A. B. in 1930. When this class was graduated in 1930 the organization remained in the school as the S. A. B.

The club has not only given its support financially to athletics, but has added to the social life of the school as well. It is the custom of the club to sponsor a spring dance.

Miss Edna L. Whitaker is the faculty adviser. Meetings are held every other Thursday at the close of school. Dues are ten cents monthly. The senior members of the S. A. B. are: Doris Denning, Alma Buchinsky, Agatha Armbruster, Betty Behr, Clara Hummel, Louise Lupkin, Dorothea Hutchinson, Evelyn Berrett, Sara Higgins, Dorothy Alexander, and Ellen Meade.

Mary:

Remember all the good times we had in our Senior classes. As you will always know "Jack" is a very nice fellow. Remember how you used to "eye" him in art class. In chemistry class you did more work than any body (?). You know, Mary, I will miss you after graduation. You were always so friendly and never seemed to care what I had to say about that certain sophomore boy. Did you? Here's hoping you will succeed in overall your desires. May the future be as successful to you, as your last 4 years have been.

JACK—I don't believe the man next door knows much about music.
MOTHER—Why?
JACK—Well, he told me to open my drum and see what was inside of it.

MOTHER (as they watch the hippotamus in the zoo)—Look, dear, he has gone completely under water.
SON—Well, I would too if I had a face like that.

PHIL—Do you think the radio will take the place of the newspaper?
HAUSE—No, you can't swat flies with a radio.

YOUNG MAN—Sir, I want your daughter for my wife.
OLD MAN—And I, sir, am not willing to trade with you.

WARFIELD—Just look at the mast; ain't she a whopper? Say, do big boats like this sink often?
BUGGY—Nope, old man, only once.

ROWE—I am one of those curfew fighters.
MATHEWS—Curfew fighters? What's that?
ROWE—When I strike you go to sleep.

DICKINSON—I always throw myself into every job I undertake.
B. BROWN—Did you ever think of digging a well?

FRESHIE—Did you know that the French drink their coffee out of bowls?
WISE GUY—That's nothing. The Chinese drink their tea out of doors.

1ST VILLAIN—How did you get rid of those blood hounds that were trailing us?
2ND VILLAIN—I threw a penny in the river and they followed the scent.

JUNE—I'm starting a world-wide movement against cosmetics. Powder shall never touch my nose.
ACKER—So you intend to be a shining example.

FASOLD—I hear they're having a fire sale at the drug store.
CONNORS—Yes, three cans of canned heat for a quarter.

1ST MAN—What's the idea of saying the election's crooked?
2ND MAN—Well, I saw Williams and Smith at the polls stuffing the ballot box.
1ST MAN—When?
2ND MAN—Why, the fourth time I went to vote.

VICTIM—Say, I'll need a glass of water after that shave.
BARBER—What's the matter, sir?
VICTIM—Oh, I just want to see if my mouth will still hold water after that shave.

The fair maid was seated on a sofa in front of the window when the young man entered the parlour.

"Shall I—er—put down the blind?" he asked.

"Well—er—that depends on where you are going to sit," she replied. And so the blind was pulled down.

Mr. Lengel went into a barber shop and asked for a haircut.

BARBER—You don't want a haircut, young man; you want a shine.

HAZEL—There goes Shott with Betty. I thought she threw him over.

EDNA—Well, you know how a girl throws.

FLAIL—Haven't you ever longed to see life?

THE GIRL FRIEND—Yes, I've been longing to see some in you ever since I met you.

T. ARBOGAST—How long can a man live without brains?

JOHNSON—Let's see, how old are you?

MORGAN—I'm glad I'm not a snake.

PARTON—Why?

MORGAN—Because when a snake has a stomach ache how does he know whether it's a stiff neck or what it is?

DESPERADO—Halt! If you move, you're dead!

STUDENT—My man, you should be more careful of your English. If I should move, it would be a positive sign that I was alive.

CRONE—Oh, Doctor, I'm so sick; if I could only die.

DOCTOR—I'll do the very best I can for you.

IZZY—Oh, it's a place where four streets meet.

PETE STERNER—Where is Manchuria, Miss Williams?

ELSIE WILLIAMS (in a doze)—Oh, it's in North America somewhere.

MISS SHORT—Are you quite sure this story is perfectly original?

F. JENNINGS—Well, not entirely; you may find one or two words in the dictionary.

MARY—I suppose you are on the football team?

STOUT (proudly)—Yes, I do aerial work.

MARY—What is that?

STOUT—I blow up footballs.

RAPID FIRE

A school master wishing to impress upon his class the great population of China, said: "The population of China is so great that two Chinamen die every time you take a breath." This information made a deep impression upon his young pupils, particularly one small boy at the foot of the class. His face was flushed, and he was puffing furiously.

"What is the matter?" inquired the school master with alarm. "What on earth are you doing, Tommy?"

"Killing Chinamen, sir," was the answer.

A small boy whose wrist was sprained had been relieved by bathing in whiskey surprised his mother by asking: "Did papa ever sprain his throat when he was a boy?"

A little boy came running in from out-doors crying because he had been stung by a bee.

"Mamma," he sobbed, "I'd just as lief the bees'd walk on me, but I don't like to have 'em sit down."

"Now, Bill," said the teacher, "tell us what would you think if you saw the Stars and Stripes waving over the field of battle?"

ECKROTH—"I should think," was the logical reply, "that the wind was blowing."

An old Scotchman was threatened with blindness if he did not give up drinking.

"Now, McTavish," said the doctor, "it's like this — you're either to stop the whiskey or lose your eyesight — and you must choose."

"Ay, weel, Doctor," said McTavish, "I'm an auld man now, an' I was thinking I ha'e seen about everything worth seeing."

All you have to do to stir up trouble is to tell the truth on all occasions.

THE POPULAR WAY

Knee action cars may be all right,

CAN YOU IMAGINE THIS?

Arthur Heffner was found reading quite sedately in Miss Short's English class, "Crossroads to Love."

Lorraine Snyder likes to sit up at night and dance.

Mildred White thinks that wood just goes up into the air after it burns.

A freshman asked Mr. Brennan if he had his schedule fixed (it happened the beginning of the year).

Myrtle Adams really stated that ginger ale tasted like linament.

A freshman stayed away from the first snake dance because he hadn't learned to dance as yet.

THERE are people in business who still maintain the standard of quality which gave them reputation — they are too careful of that reputation to jeopardize the goodwill of their customers by using inferior printing. We have helped to make and are helping to maintain such reputation.

PROGRESS

There are few fields where the necessity for progress—the demand for new ideas, is as pronounced as in the production of School Annuals. ✡ Here in Canton we take pride in not only keeping pace, but in setting the pace for innovations and changes in this highly progressive field. ✡ When you work with Canton you are hand in hand with experienced people, constantly on the alert to sense the wants of Annual publishers, and quick to change from the old order, and offer new and unusual ideas to progressive editors.

THE MODERN VERSION

"You must wake and call me early; call me early, mother, dear,"
That was often said to mothers of yester-year.
But the girls now tell their mothers, as they part for a spin:
"You must wake up early, mother; some one's got to let me in."

COMPARISON

What's the use of learning
an ancient history date
When I can have a modern one
at a quarter after eight.

MR. BRENNAN—Tell me what water is, Rowe?
BOB—Water is the stuff that turns black when I put my hands in it.

SCHOTT—Why do you speak to the girls you do not know?
TYSON—Because the girls I do know won't talk to me.

LIGHTCAP—Say, that guy is an awful tight-wad.
KENNEDY—Why?
LIGHTCAP—Well, he opened his wallet last January and a June bug flew out.

SMITH—I've heard a lot of nice things about Sylvia.
ANOTHER GUY—Oh, so you've talked to her, too.
